In Tripura, on an average there are 28 (twenty eight) declared Government holidays and at least 72 (seventy two) fixed holidays (4 Sundays & 2 Saturdays in each month) in a calendar year. Majority of the employees of the State Government are availing these holidays. But, in case of shortage of manpower or during emergency situations like disaster, elections, Durga Puja, Diwali, VVIP visit etc. these 3 (three) days off are withheld for smooth functioning of emergency duties in the Fire Stations. Due to deprival of the Government holidays/ off, the work-life balance of the Operational Staff of this Department has been seriously affected leading to poor health and stressful life.

Simultaneously, when an employee shall work for a part of calendar year only due to retirement, resignation, termination, promotion from non-gazetted post to gazetted post etc., such employee shall only be eligible for payment Special Compensatory Allowance for such part working period only.
